LIKABLELOGIC

Purpose

LikableLogic.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit dedicated to education and the open exchange of important information often overlooked in mainstream discourse. We foster respectful dialogue to build understanding to improve society. Communication and education are regarded as priorities with LIKABLELOGIC and while the project of developing playing cards to be sold on Amazon was and remains the primary goal of this non-profit, other possible new projects will follow the spirit of improving society through the use and dissemination of valuable information to the public.
